COCKTAILS

As well as being the home of Ping Pong, Bounce proudly sits just a moment's walk from the 18th century home of gin production.

Our beautiful bar is a homage to the Gin palace – the predecessor of the beloved public house – and our menu aims to be accessible just as these establishments were way back when. We have taken some inspiration from our surrounds of Hatton Garden, The City of London and, of course, from the sport of Wiff Waff, Table Tennis or, as we prefer, Ping Pong.
