OUR STORY

At Naked Soho, we laugh in the face of censorship. Our founders make a point to celebrate the body, sexuality and freedom.

Within days of opening, we had locals knocking on our door and telling us to take down every piece of art visible from the streets in order to "protect" passersby. Protect them from what? The glories of the human body? So, apologies, we had to cover up our venue a bit from the outside but we won't let that bring us down!

We wanted to create a space where people can be as free as possible, where anything goes. If you want to stand next to a wall of dicks and vulvas of all shapes and sizes, who's to stop you? Gay, straight, queer, trans, S&M fetishes, feet kinks - anything you want to be you can be at Naked Soho.

Celebrate your birthday with us and enjoy a cake with a massive, erect penis sitting on top. Wild it out at your hen party or stag do with a mouth full of dick waffles and titty cupcakes.

Naked Soho will be your new favorite hot spot for good food, good vibes, and good times, we promise!
