RARE & LIMITED TEAS

Nepal Spring White £8.00

White peony leaves are carefully picked during the spring; cool air is blown through these leaves and dried at different temperatures with accurate precision.

Golden Tips £23.50

From a rare reddish tea bush cultivated near Ceylon's Adams
Peak, the leaf is untouched through processing to maintain purity.
The young buds being plucked early in the morning before the sun heats up and they unfurl. The leaf is then withered and dried naturally on velvet.

Heart of Persia £17.50

The king of spices, saffron, is the key ingredient; hints of this distinctive spice accent a selection of fruits and flower petals brought together with a delicate single estate Ceylon tea.

Darjeeling First Flush £9.50

From the Himalayan foothills, this first harvest tea of the spring captures muscatel characteristics - light, bright, floral and delicate with earthy, grassy notes. This particular First Flush is one of the finest teas from the region, and often known as the Champagne of teas.

Mi Lan Dan Cong (Black Oolong) £10.50

This smooth Oolong comes from a plantation on the lower slopes of China's Wu Dong Mountain. The leaves are thoroughly fermented and baked to produce rich liquor with floral and honeyed characteristics.

Li-Shan £18.00

Taiwan's most celebrated high-grown oolong teas.

Whole Rosebuds £10.50

Light and fragrant with a sweet rose aroma, this is a delicate, light caffeine free drink.
