

A silver, metallic-looking ribbon is draped horizontally across the upper portion of the image. The ribbon has a slight sheen and is set against a dark, textured background featuring a repeating geometric pattern of small, interconnected circles. On the right side of the ribbon, there is a circular, dark-colored label with a metallic rim. The word "DRINKS" is printed in a clean, white, sans-serif font on the label. The overall composition is minimalist and elegant, with a focus on texture and light reflection.
