Rave reviews...

A fantastic venue hidden in the heart of London. The Foundation team went above and beyond to help us out before, during and after the event and were incredibly accommodating with all of our requests for bespoke elements. I can't recommend it enough.

IGN

Just wanted to say a massive thank you to you and your team for all your help at our media group reception last week. The event went really well and the venue worked perfectly for the number of people that we had.
