The celebrated rosé has great charm while the Nicolas Francois Billecart is a blend of Grand Cru Pinot and Chardonnay, a wine of fantastic intensity and depth of flavour, whilst the Sous Bois is barrel fermented, delivering a great depth of flavour.

MAISON FONDÉE

LAURENT-PERRIER TOUR SUR MARNE

Founded in 1812, Laurent Perrier has maintained family ownership, though the family name has changed through sale and bequeath. In 1945 army sergeant Bernard de Nonancourt broke into Hitler's wine cave in the Bavarian Alps, where he discovered half a million bottles of wine including a few hundred cases of Salon Champagne, which he had witnessed being stolen from his neighbour five years earlier. On return, Bernard started a 4-year apprenticeship within other houses in preparation to take over Laurent-Perrier from his mother with these guiding words: 'You'll never make a good Director without being a good worker'

POMMERY REIMS

Pommery & Greno was established in 1836, but it was the highly entrepreneurial Jeanne-Alexandrine Louise Pommery, who in 1858 took over the running of the business after the unexpected death of her husband, that made sure the Pommery name and reputation was internationally recognised. Madame Pommery launched the first commercially successful 'Brut' Champagne in history 'Pommery Brut Nature 1874, at a time when champagne was excessively sweetened with sugar.

Today, the champagne is expertly crafted by Chef de Cave, Thierry Gasco, only the 9th Cellarmaster to create Pommery champagnes.

The great Champagne House of Perrier-Jouët has been creating exceptional wines for almost 2 centuries. Maintaining this innovative reputation, Perrier-Jouët were also the first Champagne House to release 'millésimes' or 'vintage Champagne' and in 1858 were also the first House to state the 'cru', or village name, and the year of the harvest on the cork and then on the label itself by the 1860's.

G.H. MUMM REIMS

Breaking new boundaries has been at the heart of Champagne G.H. Mumm since the House was founded in 1827. Georges H. Mumm, the founding father, developed a taste for discovery and adventure with his friend the famous French explorer Captain Jean-Baptiste Charcot.

In 1875, the House began decorating its bottles with the Cordon Rouge as a tribute to the red ribbon of the Legion of Honour, France's highest civilian distinction created by Napoleon I. This powerful red sash has now become synonymous with House of Champagne G.H. Mumm and the extraordinary achievements it supports. Today, G.H. Mumm is integral to some of the world's greatest sporting events, from world class sailing competitions such as The Vendée Globe to international motor sports events including Formula One.

DEUTZ AY

Deutz is the epitome of understated excellence. Founded in 1838, the House is situated amongst the vineyards of one of the region's greatest villages: Ay-Champagne. Champagne Deutz Brut Classic carefully blends the three champagne grapes to perfection; the freshness of the Chardonnay and the richness of the Pinot Noir enhance the wine's full-bodied elegance. A trio of prestige cuvées represent the pinnacle of the House's achievement in three styles: graceful Blanc de Blancs, compelling Pinot-dominated vintage, and rich, 100% grand cru rose.

KRUG REIMS

"THE FEELING OF FRIENDSHIP IS LIKE THAT OF BEING COMFORTABLY FILLED WITH ROAST BEEF; LOVE, LIKE BEING ENLIVENED WITH CHAMPAGNE."

SAMUEL JOHNSON

Krug is distinctive and easily recognized by taste due to complete barrel fermentation and extended lees aging; on the nose, Krug is identified by its strongly developed and aged nutty lees influence and a certain oakiness. On the palate, Krug wines commonly display a raciness derived from their unique production; suppression of the malolactic fermentation, richness both from lees and barrel fermentation.

Pol Roger, thanks to the enthusiastic endorsement of Winston Churchill, has always been regarded with fondness by the British. The wines tend to be seductive with a plump, honey-tinged richness, yet quite shy on the finish. The vintage brut is composed of 60% Pinot Noir and 40% Chardonnay.

The Rosé has a pale, onion skin hue, and a lovely nose, demonstrating a refined, mineral-infused quality.
