

BeerDogs™

EXCLUSIVE TO SPORTS
Bar
& grill

CLASSIC AMERICAN HOTDOGS

BEEF, PORK OR VEGETARIAN SERVED IN A LIGHTLY TOASTED SUB
WITH A CHOICE OF FRIES OR CAJUN FRIES.

FRENCH DOG £9.95
With sauteed onions

BEER BATTERED DOG £10.95
Coated in our homemade Bombardier beer batter with a sliced wally*

T.L.M. DOG £10.95
Tomato, lettuce & mayonnaise
(add a rasher of bacon for 95p)

LONDON DOG £10.95
Bacon & sautéed onions

WELSH DOG £10.95
Yfenni cheese & sautéed mushrooms

CALIFORNIA DOG £10.95
Pineapple & homemade cheesy coleslaw

OKLAHOMA DOG £10.95
Sports Bar & Grill bbq sauce & strong
American cheddar

NEW YORK BUFFALO DOG £10.95
Homemade Buffalo sauce, blue cheese sauce & crumbled blue cheese

LOUISIANA DOG £10.95
Cajun spiced with red onion & strong
American cheddar

ACAPULCO DOG £11.95
Sports Bar & Grill beef chilli, sour cream & jalapenos

IBERIAN DOG £11.95
Sliced chorizo, jalapenos & melted cheese

SIDES:

*Wally £1.95 • Homemade coleslaw £1.95 • Cheesy coleslaw £2.95 • Onion rings £2.95

WHY ARE GHERKINS CALLED WALLY'S?

It's a British colloquial term for the gherkin. Originally it was London slang corruption of the word "Olive" but when Eastern European immigrants arrived in the late 19th Century they brought a liking for pickled cucumbers which, like olives, were sold from wooden barrels and also began to be referred to as wallies (mostly in the east-end of London).