

The Ultimate Winter Venues

The Earth Halls

4th December – 20th December 2014

Earth Halls

Create a magical backdrop to your event with the Earth Halls, a celestial event space in the heart of the iconic Natural History Museum. This extraordinary space provides a wonderful setting for special events.

This modern, unique venue has hidden dimensions and is suitable for small to medium sized evening events designed to impress.

Capacities

The venue is suitable for seated dinners and standing events, with a range of catering options available.

Seated dinners	120 – 200
Receptions and Buffets	200 – 400

Please note the venue details are still being developed and therefore subject to change.

The Earth Halls

The interior of this space tells a story of the past. The Halls are surrounded by precious artefacts, from moon rock and metals to fluorescent minerals. The effect is completed by 18 metre high slate walls which have been etched with images of the night sky to create a truly magical atmosphere.

Adjoining rooms include the Earth Halls' upper galleries which can be added on to accommodate large events.

The Earth Halls also benefit from a private entrance on the famous Exhibition Road.

The Theme

Dine amongst the stars at the dramatic Earth Halls this winter.

Festive theming here has been inspired by the venue's awe-inspiring centrepiece, a magnificent globe which sets the scene for extraordinary events.

Vast slate walls envelop the space, creating a celestial atmosphere with constellations and space themed decor.

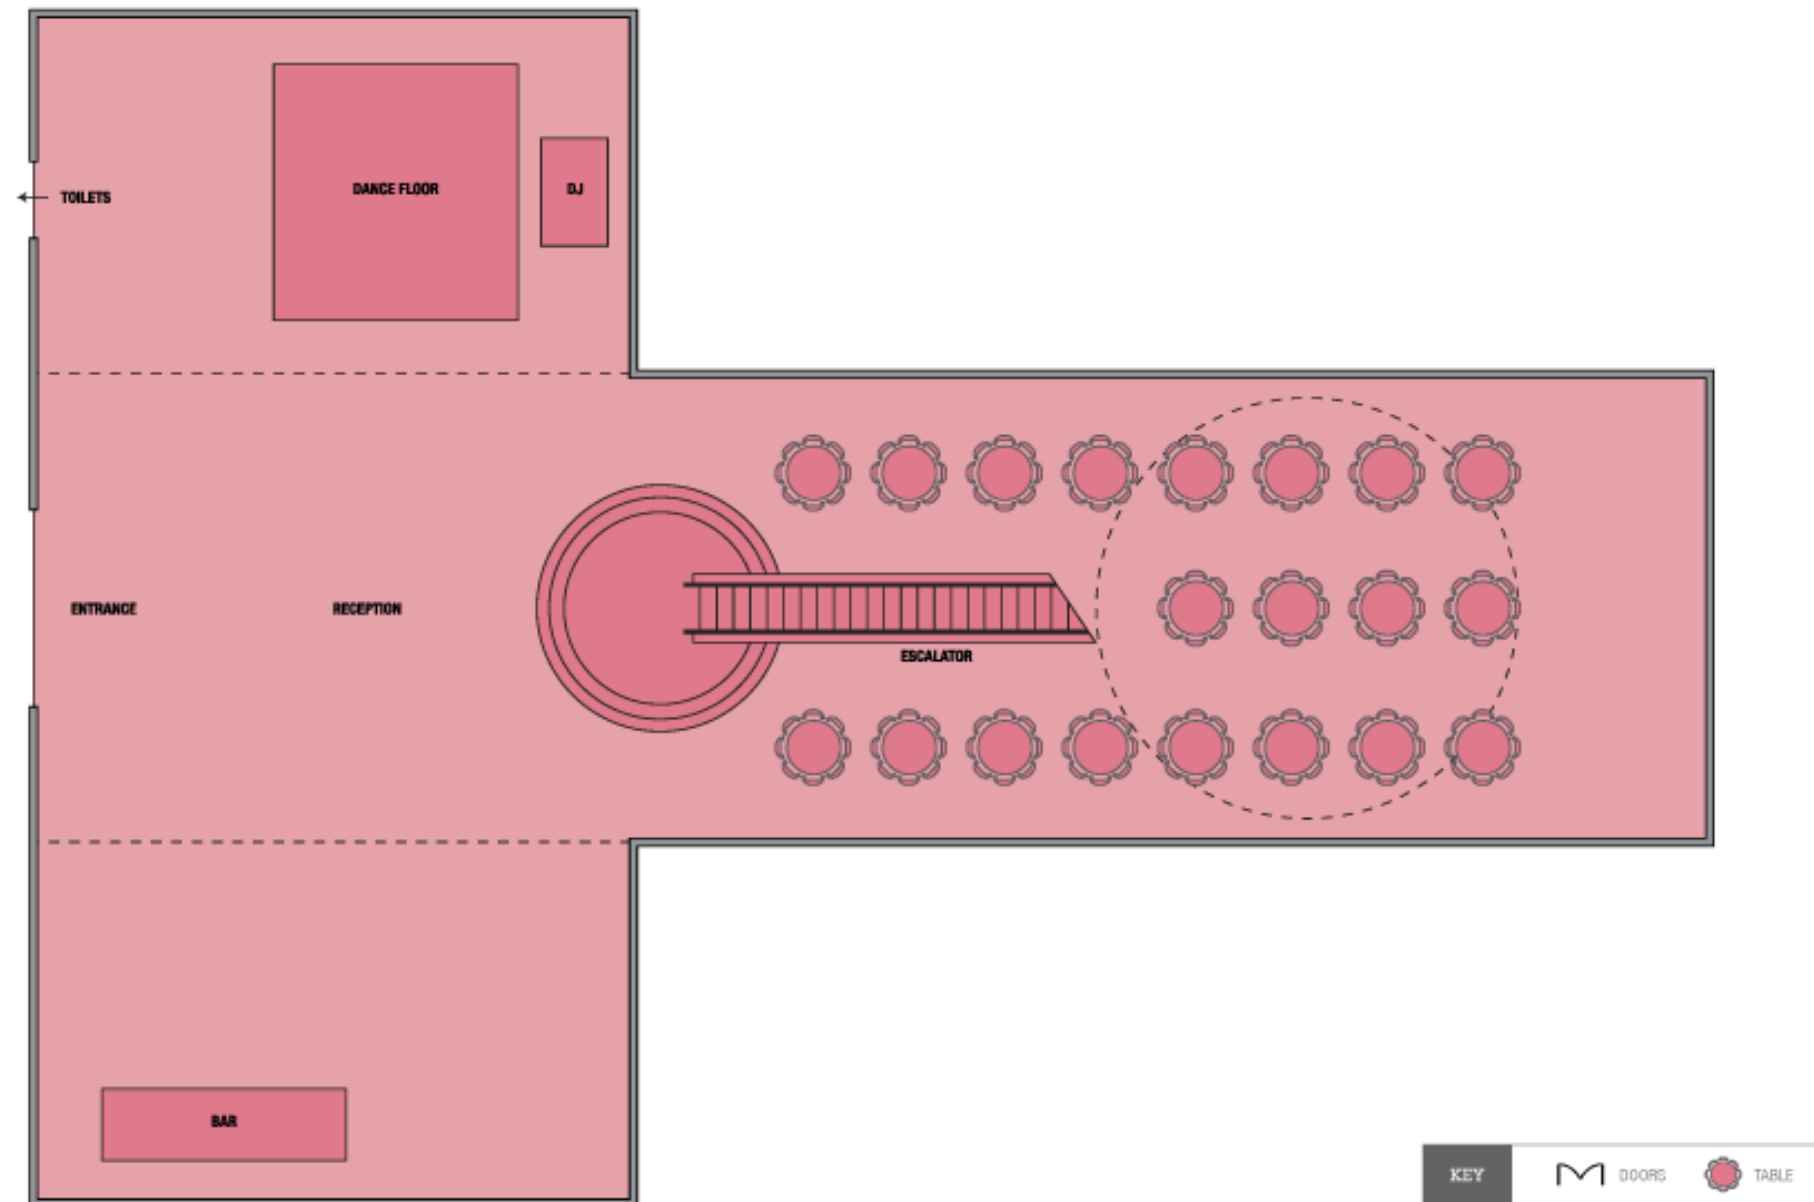

Catering

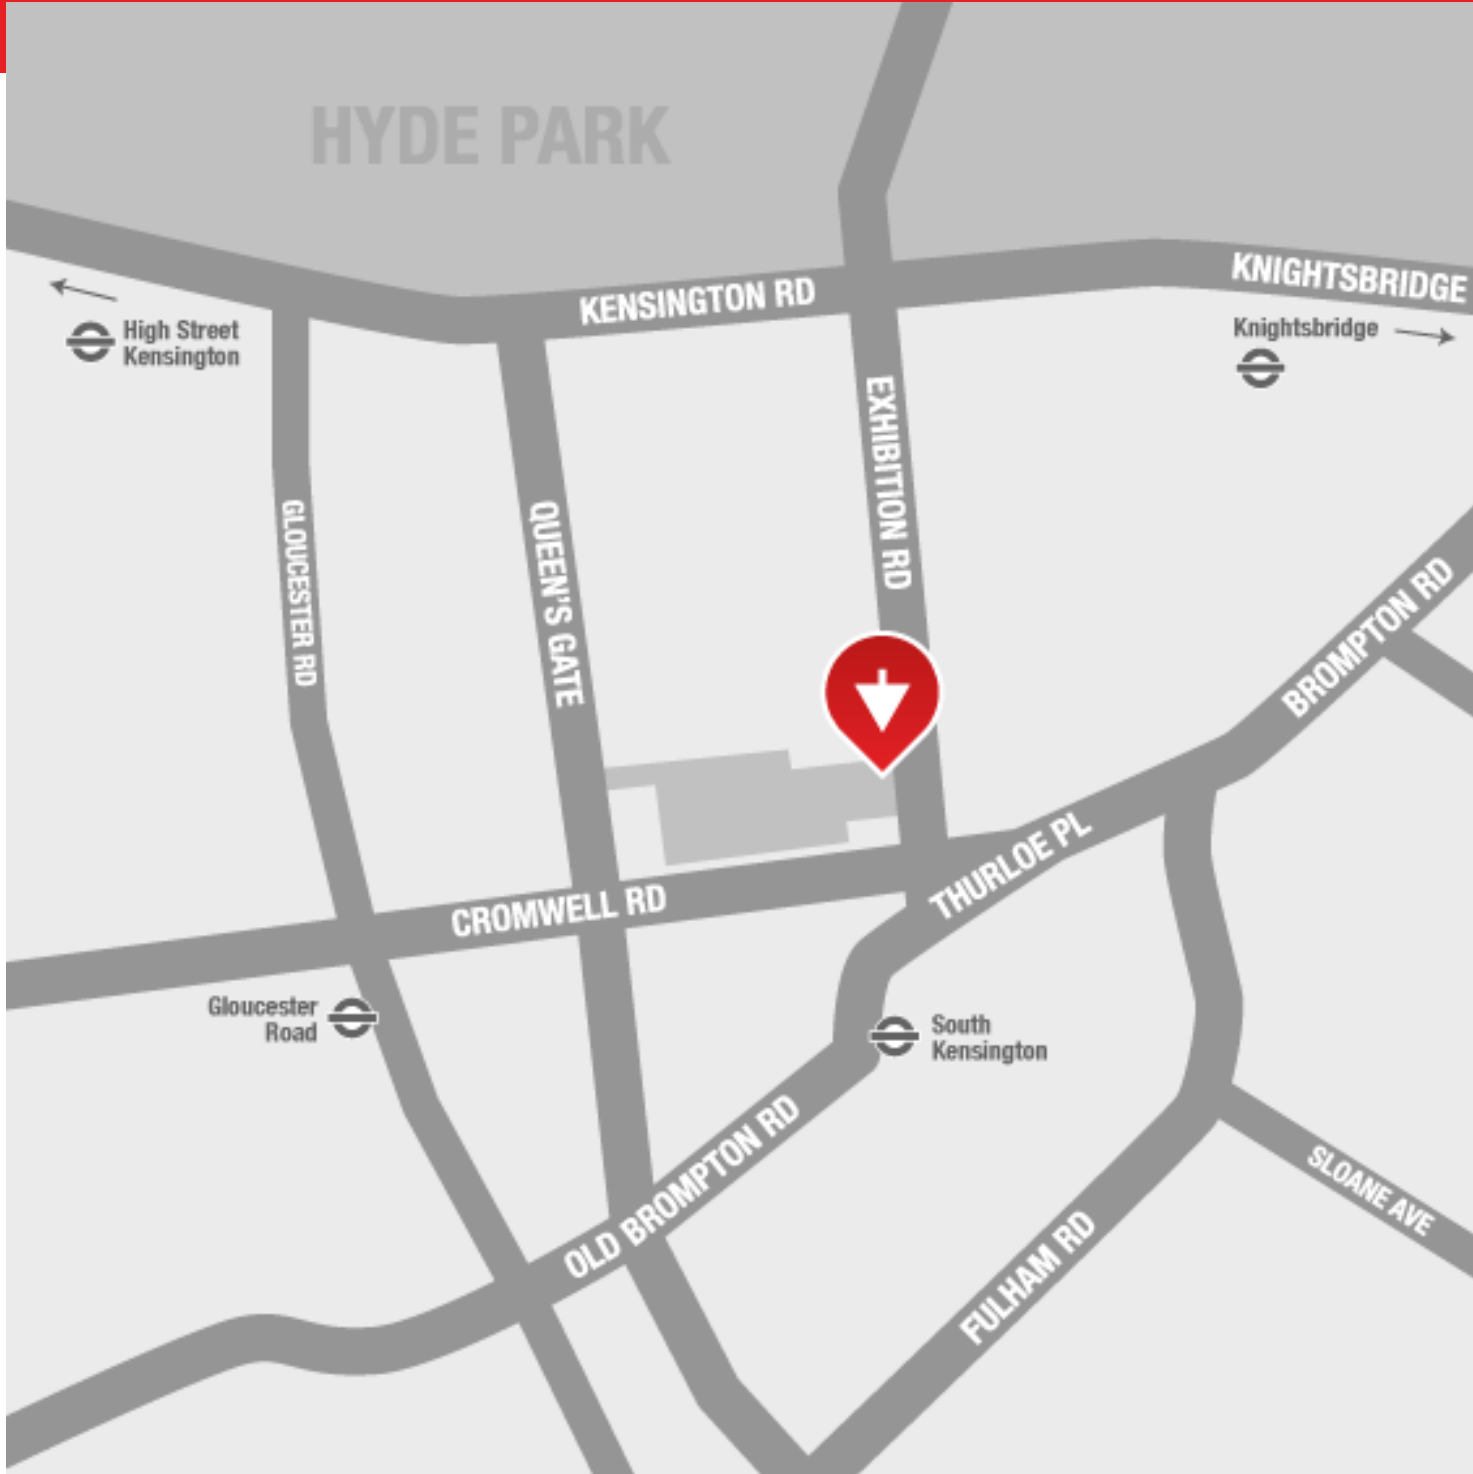

Preferred caterers Create Food & Party Design have been approved by this prestigious venue. This award winning caterers are one of London's leading event caterers with a reputation for immaculate service, attention to detail and passion for fine food,
