BESPOKE CHRISTMAS POP-UP VENUE FOR 2014

Deep in the forgotten heart of London awaits a magical Christmas party destination. Stepping into a courtyard through a side road off Old Street roundabout, you'll discover an enchanted hidden world. Leaving the chill of December nights far behind, you'll enter the warm glow of our Eastern European fairytale, with festooned lighting to light the way.

Inspired by the Grimm Brothers' fable, Palace of The Snow Queen is a pop-up venue created by Looking Glass Productions (Black Cat Cabaret, Boom Boom Club) and contemporary arts organisation Cube Space, at a converted warehouse location in E1. Expect beautiful decor, theatrical cabaret and circus performance, interactive hosts and hostesses costumed as mythical creatures, live music and DJs. The venue is perfect for groups who wish to mingle and socialise in a fantastic setting, and of course enjoy sumptuous festive food and beverages.

The Courtyard

A walled external private space off the road (2000 sq ft.), inspired by old world European Christmas markets. Log cabins dispense Gluwein and canapés, there is a chestnut brazier, and walkabout story-telling character hosts to welcome you upon arrival. Plus tables and smoking area.

The Palace

Enter by passing under a tableau vivant frozen archway, through the shadowy paper tree forest, into the main space (3100 sq ft.). Prepare for the arrival at court of the Snow Queen, and main performance. As the evening unfolds, she will command a selection of highly skilled captives (aerial acrobats, dancers, musicians and singers) to perform for the amusement of her guests, and possibly earn the right to have their frozen hearts thawed. A beautiful bespoke set of giant décor which guests wander through and inhabit, containing clusters of simple wooden benches and tables. Light installations during the early evening will transform into a party atmosphere later with bar service, live music and DJs

Food & Beverage

Included in the ticket price is a choice of Gluwein or Prosecco served on arrival, accompanied by winter market canapés. Inside, we'll provide a bowl food service - each guest receiving 3-4 bowls of warm wintre fayre as prepared by our artisan chefs (selected from the Southbank Centre food markets and Taste Festival London). Informal mixture of standing and seating, with seating space for 100 guests at a time.
