BE AT ONE COCKTAIL MENU

THE BE AT ONE STORY

Steve Locke, Leigh Miller and Rhys Oldfield are three former bartenders who met working together in London in the early 1990s. As well as being world-class bartenders, Steve, Leigh and Rhys were (and still are) discerning drinkers. By the late '90s the cocktail bar industry was becoming saturated with bars which focused more on style than substance – something had to be done. They went off and got themselves a car loan and a credit card each and bought a run down Indian restaurant on Battersea Rise. Over the following seven weeks they created Be At One and the little bar on Battersea Rise opened its doors at the end of May 1998.

And the name? Too many bars take themselves too seriously and Steve, Leigh and Rhys wanted to create an unpretentious environment that was not trying to intimidate guests or make them feel uncomfortable; where guests would be greeted and hosted and made to feel 'at one' with the bar. They tried to come up with one word which encapsulated this, but couldn't, so they used three.
