THE GIN COLLECTION

We have compiled the largest gin collection in Scotland and one of the largest in the world. This guide is to help you, our guest, enjoy the best gins with the best mixers. Next to each gin is our recommendation. We feel this is a great way to enjoy that gin, however this is simply a guide and as such we love you experimenting! Please make sure to tell your server or bartender exactly how you would like your gin served, with both the garnish & mixer of your choice.

JENEVER OR GENIÈVRE - PRE 1600 TO PRESENT DAY

This is a Dutch drink which pre-dates gin as we know it now. The Dutch first taxed it in 1606 so this is the oldest link to gin. Jenever is made with the addition of malted wine and Juniper to the base spirit. Jonger (younger) styles are lighter and fresher with Oude (old) styles being malty and often aged in wood so similar to a soft malt whisky. These are fundamental products to the history of gin.

Bols Genever (unaged) | Dutch | £3.50 + Apple or Ginger with Ginger ale or Glowworm flavours

A.Y.Weiss Korewijn (corn base) | Dutch | £3.50 + Apple & Ginger ale or Glowworm flavours

Bols Zeer Oude | Dutch | £3.25 + Lime & Ginger Ale

Zuidam Genever 5 Year Old Zeer Oude | Dutch | £3.50 + Lime & Ginger Ale

OLD TOM - 1800 TO PRESENT DAY

When the English discovered juniper spirits the first style they produced was Old Tom. Hugely popular in 18th-century England & now rarely available. It is slightly sweeter than London Dry & classic styles, but slightly drier than Jenever hence it's often called the "Missing Link".

Tanqueray Old Tom (limited edition) | Scotland | £3.95 + Lemon & Fever-Tree tonic

Jenson Old Tom | England | £3.25 + Lemon & Fentimans tonic or light tonic

Hayman's Old Tom | England | £3.25 + Lemon & Fentimans tonic or light tonic

Professor Ampleforth Bathtub Old Tom | England | £3.75 + Lemon & Fentimans tonic

BARREL-AGED GIN PROJECT - PRESENT

We have set out to re-invent the wheel! Aged gins are rare & those that do exist are designed from the start to be aged. So what happens if we take great gins & age them for a selected period? Vanilla, oak, spices, wood all add to the normal gin botanicals for a unique experience.

Option 1 - Papa Gents Oak Aged, Rather Good Gin - we pour our really good gin into a new American oak barrel. Each bottle is aged for around 7 days in our cask then decanted - £3.25

Option 2- Tanqueray Export Strength aged in a Ron Zacapa 23yr old rum barrel for around 14 days - £3.95

Either option best as - Neat over ice or Orange & Fever-Tree tonic or light tonic

CLASSIC & LONDON DRY - 1830 TO PRESENT

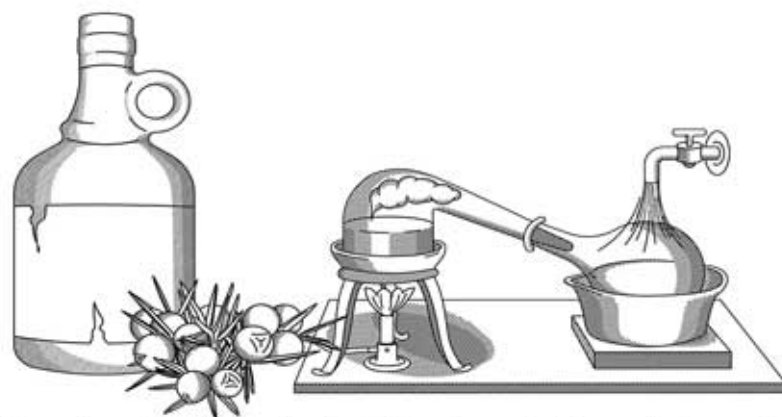

An authentic London dry gin will be very dry with a smooth texture. The gin will have a crisp character & pronounced juniper flavour with citrus hints. This section also includes classic products such as Plymouth gins as well as new products made in a classic style. We have added younger brands to this section because they replicate the classic styles.
