

CHAPTER 4

PANDA'S SELECTION

Rewind back to the days before the Internet when a classic novel would let your mind run free with imagination.
These drinks are designed to do the same with your taste buds.

ONE WHEEL ON MY WAGON

Panda has named this drink after the song ‘Three Wheels on my Wagon’. It is a loose take on the Vieux Carré Cocktail. If you like boozy cocktails you have come to the right potion you budding Imbiber.

Buffalo Trace White Dog, Nardini Bianca Grappa, Angostura bitters, Martini Bianco and Benedictine, which is Barrel Aged for a month with the addition of Toasted Oak Chips.

£8.50

HUNGRY RASTAPILLER

Panda used to ‘read’ this book to Rupert and Benson every now and then and they adored the illustrations. This drink also won the first Wray & Nephew competition. Spicy, verdant and delightful.

Wray & Nephew, Jerk Syrup, Fresh Lime Juice, topped with a Thyme and Sorrel Foam.

£7.00

BE YOURSELF, RELAX & RETURN HOME

Relax those nerves; you always have time for one drink. This drink is gin martini in style with some subtle nuances. If you like the Gin Martini and the Red Snapper give this a sip, or two or three!

Hendricks Gin, Byrrh Grand Quinquina, Rosemary Smoke, Peychauds Bitters and a delicate touch of Tomato Juice.

£7.50

ROBINSON CRUSOE

This is Rupert’s favourite book. Every birthday he requests that his cake looks like a Tropical Island. Bless his cotton socks! This is designed for someone new to the delights of Whisky and wants to appreciate it more.

Talisker 10 year old, Grilled Pineapple Syrup, Gabriel Boudier Apricot Brandy, Fresh Ginger, Gancia Bianco and Angostura Bitters.

£8.00