

A warm welcome to Daly's Wine Bar

Wine should make you smile. This is our passion and our reason to be. Whether your taste is for the traditional or you feel inspired to experiment, we are confident you will discover some tempting gems within.

Our philosophy for sourcing our worldwide selection is simple; we favour family-owned and operated estates, wines must over deliver on quality whatever the cost, brim with provenance and character, and be crafted by individuals dedicated to creating great-tasting wine for those of us who love to drink it.

We favour producers committed to sustainable practices

This covers every aspect of production; not just what happens in the vineyard and the wine-making, but eco-decisions on carbon emissions, waste and much more. Although some of our wines are certified as Organic, many more growers now nurture their vines 'sustainably' following organic principles, primarily to make the best wine they can, but also to protect the environment.

Treat yourself!

A changing selection of truly fine wine is also offered by the glass, dispensed from our precious Enomatic. This state of the art preservation system efficiently maintains an opened bottle without spoilage for several weeks, and provides us all with an opportunity for an affordable taste of luxury.

Wine+

Our bar also offers a cracking selection of premium spirits and both traditional and artisan beers, including our very own craft brews from the Temple Brew House downstairs.

Cheers!

Sancerre, Domaine du Carrou 2013 Loire Valley 13%	36.50
Dominique Roger takes a minimal intervention approach at his 10 hectare estate which occupies a prime position in Bué. The fresh, fragrant fruitiness here really impresses, this will not disappoint any Sancerre lover.

Gavi di Gavi 'Figini', La Chiara 2013 Piedmont 12.5%	32.50
Produced from the tongue-tingling, roasted-almond flavoured Cortese grape, Gavi has overtaken Pinot Grigio for the cognoscenti who are searching for more flavour and interest. You have found it here.
Albariño, Adegas Valminor 2013 Galicia 12.5%	30.00

De Gras Reserva Viognier 2013 Leyda Valley 13%	24.00

Featured Wines are selected as especially outstanding examples of their style, or just because we know you will love them as much as we do.

I CABERNET & MERLOT I

These two classic varieties work well solo but are also best friends; the voluptuous Merlot softening the more structured core of its mate. This is where you can indulge your Claret craving, or try the elegant Aussie take on Bordeaux with the mouthwatering Madfish.

	750ml
De Gras Reserva Merlot 2013 Colchagua Valley 13.5%	23.50
A deep and darkly fruity glass of temptation. Bring on that Daly's burger!

Château Plaisance Saint-Emilion Grand Cru 2010 Saint-Emilion 14%	42.50
Right-bank Merlot-dominated Clarets are already drinking well from this sinewy vintage. There's a seductive, come-hither opulence here that is irresistible. A Daly's favourite!
Château La Louvière 2009 Pessac-Léognan 13%	58.00
The generous nature of the 2009 vintage is hard to resist. Louvière is part of the dynastic Lurton family's portfolio and consistently over delivers; ripe yet fresh currant fruit, scented oak spice and a lick of lead pencil.
Château Rauzan-Segla 2-ème Cru Classé 2007 Margaux 13.5%	90.00
Stylistically Margaux tends to be an early developer compared to other Médoc communes, and 2007 is a relatively forward and much under-valued vintage. The typically fleshy black fruits and silky mouthfeel are evident here and of course, the classed growths make great wine every year!

I SYRAH & MALBEC I

This corner of the cellar radiates a warming, peppery glow – the under floor heating of our menu! Both varieties give you a big hug and exude dense, dark fruit and fragrant sweet spice in spades.

	750ml

D'Arenberg 'Laughing Magpie' Shiraz/Viognier 2010 McLaren Vale 13.9%	37.50
Chester Osborne's wines may sound a little eccentric but do not under-estimate their power and substance. This is the Big Daddy, rich with Christmas-y spices galore, and the splash of flowery Viognier lightens the load.
Crozes-Hermitage 'Papillon', Domaine Gilles Robin 2013 Northern Rhône Valley 13%	42.00
The domaine's superior old vine fruit is evident in this sublime Syrah. Violet-scented and vigorous with dark plums overlaid with ground black pepper.
Chateauneuf du Pape, Domaine Chante Cigale 2011 Southern Rhône Valley 15%	47.50
Syrah takes second place to Grenache here, but they make fine bedfellows. Smoky, spicy, masculine, complex.

I PINOT NOIR I

Pinot signifies a lighter style of red, with plenty of succulent red berry and cherry fruit to the fore. These make terrific 'wine bar' wines; perfect for quaffing with or without food, though our Mercurey and Gevrey are undoubtedly very fine Burgundies worth taking your time over.

	750ml
Viña Leyda Reserva Pinot Noir 2013 Leyda Valley 14%	26.50

Bourgogne Pinot Noir, Domaine Marchand Frères 2013 Burgundy 12.5%	37.50
Authentic, oak-matured Bourgogne which belies its modest status. Much immediate charm, bright cherry and ripe plum lead the way with a perfectly pitched oak overlay. If you like this, you will love their Gevrey.
Mercurey, Domaine Michel Juillot 2012 Burgundy 12.5%	43.00
This family have grown vines here since the 15th century and their wines skillfully capture the ethereal elegance essential in great Burgundy. Perfumed cherry and raspberry, charming florals, a dash of farmyard - it is all here.
Gevrey-Chambertin Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Marchand Frères 2011 Burgundy 13%	65.00
Hand harvested from two lieux-dits of 20 and 50 year old vines in the heart of Gevrey. Headily scented hedgerow fruits, a warm heart of oak spice and hints of damp forest floor. Class act.

Convivial blend fronted by the local dynamic duo of Carignan and Grenache.
Quinta do Crasto 'Superior' 2012 Douro Valley 14.5%	35.00
Portugal is fast becoming our go-to destination for superlative quality to value bottles. Dripping with bountiful inky fruit and subtle cinnamon spice, we urge you to dip into this divine Douro.
Château Musar 2007 Bekaa Valley 14%	52.50
This iconic estate successfully crafted exemplary wines throughout the Lebanese war, bravely transporting the harvest through the front line. Cabernet, Carignan and Cinsault are aged in French barriques and only released after 7 years maturation. Legend.
Barolo 'Pisapola', Ascheri 2010 Piedmont 14%	50.00

Chianti Classico, Fattoria Casaloste 2011 Tuscany 13.5%	40.00

I RED WINES I

	750ml
La Crema Pinot Noir 2012 Sonoma Coast 13.5% Voluptuous, hedonistic Pinot; penetrating black cherry perfume and great clarity of fruit emphatically supported by sweet oak spice and a gloriously supple texture. The all-female team here really know their stuff.	49.50
Gevrey-Chambertin Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Marchand Frères 2011 Burgundy 13% Hand harvested from two lieux-dits of 20 and 50 year old vines in the heart of Gevrey. Headily scented hedgerow fruits, a warm heart of oak spice and hints of forest floor damp earth. Class act.	65.00
Château Plaisance Saint-Emilion Grand Cru 2010 Saint-Emilion 14% Right-bank Merlot-dominated Clarets are already drinking well from this sinewy vintage. There's a seductive, come-hither opulence here that is irresistible. A Daly's favourite!	42.50
Château La Louvière 2009 Pessac-Léognan 13% The generous nature of the 2009 vintage is hard to resist. Louvière is part of the dynastic Lurton family's portfolio and consistently over-delivers; ripe yet fresh currant fruit, scented oak spice and a lick of lead pencil.	58.00
Château Rauzan-Segla 2-ème Cru Classé 2007 Margaux 13.5% Stylistically Margaux tends to be an early developer compared to other Médoc communes, and 2007 is a relatively forward and much under-valued vintage. The typically fleshy black fruits and silky mouthfeel are evident here, and of course the classed growths make great wine every year!	90.00
Chateauneuf du Pape, Domaine Chante Cigale 2011 Southern Rhône Valley 15% Syrah takes 2nd place to Grenache here, but they make fine bedfellows. Smoky, spicy, masculine, complex, well-balanced.	47.50
Château Musar 2007 Bekaa Valley 14% This iconic estate successfully crafted exemplary wines throughout the Lebanese war, bravely transporting the harvest through the front line. Cabernet, Carignan and Cinsault are aged in French barriques and only released after 7 years maturation. Legend.	52.50
Barolo 'Pisapola', Ascheri 2010 Piedmont 14% The sturdy Nebbiolo variety can produce rather unforgiving wines. Lucky for us Matteo Ascheri's Pisapola hillside vineyard bears fruit that is more perfumed and generous. You will love this savoury, smoke-y, dark cherry-fruited, tea-leaf and damp earth scented wonder. Best decanted.	50.00
