WEEKEND MENU

VINTAGE COLLECTION

Welcome to our opening menu. We have selected a hand full of crafted beverages to begin our journey. Our selection of vintage recipes found pre- 20th century, paying respect to our roots, we always pay special attention to these forgotten gemstones.

Grass Hopper - 8

*Fernet Branca, Crème de menthe, Crème de cacao *Minty ice cream delight
Glowing emerald green, the Grasshoppers charm will entice you with its fresh, clean aroma. We don't make our grasshoppers the simple traditional way, we add in a few different treats into the mix to celebrate one of our favorite digestifs.

Pink Lady - 8

*Lairds Applejack, Plymouth Elegant and silky smooth
"Pink ladies should never be taken alone, they overshadow the atmosphere – oozing too much charm for their surroundings. We personally recommend that you mix it for four, but remember that even three's a crowd."

Flamenco - 8

*Bols Genever, Hidalgo Triana PX Juicy sweet, citrus orange, and nutty depth
One of the owners' favorite tipples; The Flamenco. Introduced to this drink in a small, hidden speak easy in NYC, the nutty notes within the sherry really play around with the in house almond based l'orgeat which is complimented by citrus undertones.

Bee's Knees 7.5

*Tanqueray London dry  Acacia honey, lemon and lavender notes
The very phrase means "excellent or very high quality", having been corrupted in America during the 1920's from its 18th century definition, which meant quite the opposite – "something very small and insignificant!"

French 75 - 8

*Camel valley Brut, Beekeeper London dry Fresh, clean, citrusy fizz
An English drink that grew popularity during the French prohibition. Named after the 75mm Howitzer field gun used by the French army during WW1. Served with a chaser of champagne. Just cause we can!

BOURNE #001 COLLECTION

Here at Bourne & Co. we adopt a contemporary approach to menu writing rendering a selection of twelve exclusive recipes changing as the seasons pass us by. With an assortment of base spirits we have faith that our potions and elixirs will serve all personalities; Capturing taste at its best ignites our essential nature for attention to detail

Goose Rampant - 7

*Pink Lady infused Famous grouse Classic sour twist with honey & cinnamon bark
This has gained real respect within our team. We love the recipe, base spirit and most of all the name! The silky velvet-like texture really mellows out the whole experience. Served on the rocks or straight up, be sure to let the server know your preference of sweet or sour.

Curious Brew - 8

*Stolichnaya citrus, Tanqueray, Chieftan IPA Long, pineapple citrus hops
This refreshing cocktail pairs two of our favorite things: juniper led gin and hoppy beer. We just love how drink uses IPA beer to add a spicy, aromatic flavour enhancing the base spirits.

Last Minute Cancellation - 8

*Makers Mark, Amaro Averna Beautiful marriage of complimentary flavours
Guests who swear up and down they hate whiskey will easily gulp down four of these in an evening claiming they love this drink. Freshly extracted apples really help the Tahitian vanilla shine through.

Honshu Punch - 9

*Yamazaki 12yr Japanese Elegant Japanese potion for longevity...Promise
Yamazaki 12yr is one of our favorite all time whiskies; maybe everyone's, in fact, due to its shortage across the globe. Instead of hiding bottles away in our cellar waiting for the fall out, we celebrate by creating the Honshu punch.... Daily!

Mi Amor - 7

*Sauza Hornitos Blended or straight, watermelon vibrancy with sugar and spice
The watermelon martini is a drink that always grabbed attention. We kept what was good: (Watermelon) and replaced the rest with love. Spanish for "My love" we are confident that even cupid would fall in love with this one.
