THE BOTANIST HUNTING LODGES

In partnership with our favourite Scottish Gin, The Botanist, our cosy Highland-inspired hunting lodges at Mac & Wild Devonshire Square (just a short walk from Liverpool Street Station) are perfect for a festive shindig and are available to book for brunch, lunch, drinks and dinner, 6 days a week (closed Sundays), seating up to 10 people per lodge.

Decked out with festive pine, candles, twinkling lights, heather shrubs, Scottish books, your very own speaker (so you and your guests can party to your own Christmas playlists – perfect for a cracking festive celebration!), and plenty of fur blankets and tartan rugs to wrap up in on the chilly nights – our hunting lodges are the perfect festive retreat this winter. For further information or to book please ask a member of staff or visit
