SPORTING WINE MAKERS

Schalk Burger and Sons, Wellington SA

Father and Son have both played for the Springboks Rugby team and many of their wines reflect their sporting heritage in both rugby and cricket. Whether Meerkat or Welbedacht vintages, they have a stunning range of reds and whites from which to choose.

Sumaridge Estates, Hermanus SA

Simon and Holly have created a world class wine farm combining the best SA vintages with the cool climate associated with their proximity to the sea. They have built a rugby pitch in their Vineyard for a Township rugby team, which is the most authentic and worthy connection to sport that you can imagine.

Jacky Lorenzetti Wines

As the owner of Racing 92, one of France's most famous clubs, Jacky has an equal passion for wine alongside his business partner, Emmanuel Cruse. Three wonderful Chateaux in the Bordeaux-Medoc region, where the Merlot/Cabernet Sauvignon blends are world famous.

Collalbrigo Estate

Francesco and his family have a rich heritage of playing at the highest level of Italian Rugby. Their vineyard just north of Venice combines the best of Italian with a strong connection to the beautiful region of Venice and of course Prosecco.

James Anderson

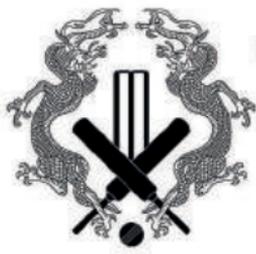

England's world-famous cricketer has combined with a notable Languedoc vineyard to create his own 'Numbers' collection, based on significant milestones and achievements throughout his career.

BMW

Ian Botham and Bob Willis are two of England's most legendary cricketers. Their Australian wines combine all the passion and quality which you would expect from these two sporting icons.

“Sport has the unique capacity to bring people together, forming unbreakable bonds through camaraderie, enterprise and the pursuit of shared goals.”
