LONDON STEAKHOUSE CO WINE

OUR STORY

Portugal and England have the world's oldest military alliance, ratified at the Treaty of Windsor in 1386. Mirroring this longstanding alliance, and as a result of the London Steakhouse Company's great affinity for Lisbon, the owners have collaborated with a local wine maker - Artur Gama to create a collection of red and white wines. Artur selects grapes from 50 acres of vines and makes the wine on his family's farm, Quinta da Boa Esperança. We oversee the whole process from field to table, this ensures we provide the best-drinking wine for our customers and their guests.

All of our London Steakhouse Co wines are created to perfectly accompany the food we serve. We have created a unique red and white blend (vintage 2015 and 2017) and a reserve of both (vintage 2015 and 2016). Each bottle is branded with our beautiful label and is available for you to try today. We also have a magnum (1.5 litres) of the red and white blends which provides great value for larger groups.

FINE WINE

WHITE WINE

		Vintage	125ml Glass	Bottle
01.	Hermitage Blanc, Chante-Alouette, M. Chapoutier France Made from 100% Marsanne hand-harvested from three different vineyard sites, all with different soil types give wonderful complexity to this wine. One third of the wine is vinified in wooden barrels with regular stirring. The wine is then aged for 10 to 12 months before bottling. Green-gold in colour, the nose is complex and subtle with aromas of quince, walnut, honey, ginger and acacia. On the palate you can feel the minerality and weight. A truly elegant wine.	2015	22.00	110.00
02.	Hartford Court Stone Côte Chardonnay 2012, Sonoma County, California, USA The Stone Côte Vineyard is a small vineyard block which sits upon an ancient riverbed at the southern end of the Sonoma Coast AVA. Climatically, this vineyard site is characterized by relatively cool daytime temperatures and maritime breezes, which marry with the low-fertility soils to create an ideal site for growing Chardonnay. This single-vineyard bottling, fermented with indigenous yeast, exhibits notes of white peach, orange blossom, hazelnut and honeysuckle which are perfectly married to the flinty aromas. It is medium to full bodied with a gorgeously mineral-laden, textured personality and great length. (2012 Vintage: 93-95 points Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate).	2012	23.00	115.00
03.	Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Sous le Puits, Remoissenet et fils, Burgundy, Franc Founded in 1877, Remoissenet Père et Fils was run for most of the last one hundred years from a 14th Century building in Beaune. Claudie Jobard has been the head winemaker here since 2005 and was inspired by her mother, Laurence, who was the head winemaker at the famed Joseph Druhin for 30 years; so a great deal of passion and heritage. The vineyard of Sous les Puits can be found in the far north-west corner of the appellation, near the hamlet of Blagny; is situated quite high on the slope and usually produces bright, fresh wines for which the house is famous.. The wines benefit from the house's policy of picking late, by exhibiting both a piercing minerality and ripe fruit flavours. It is aged for 16 months in 40% new French Oak barrels.	2013	25.00	125.00
04.	Meursault 1er Cru Genevrieres Domaine Henri Boillot Burgundy, France This Henri Boillot Meursault comes from one of the area's larger and better-known premier cru vineyards, Genevrieres. Expect pure aromas of soft citrus and stone fruits, buttery hazelnut and spices, balanced by fine, mineral acidity. This 2013 exhibits Boillot's textbook luxurious, velvety richness and fruit depth whilst finishing long and perfumed on the palate.	2013	29.00	145.00

WHITE WINE

		Vintage	125ml Glass	Bottle
05.	Pouilly Fume Blanc, Silex, Didier Dageuneau, Loire France The term 'Legend' is perhaps marginally overused in the wine world, however few would argue against placing Didier Dageuneau in this esteemed bracket. Didier was the man behind some of the world's most iconic, complex Sauvignon Blanc's from the Pouilly Fumé appellation in the Loire. Since his tragic death in 2008, his son Benjamin has continued his legacy, crafting wines of extraordinary character and acclaim. 'Silex' is the French for flint, a dominant component of Dagenau's limestone rich vineyard soils. Unusually, the wine is fermented and aged in oak demi muids barrels which lends added texture and complexity. The 2014 Silex does smell palpably of flint and herbs and zesty citrus notes, while on the palate there are notes of lime juice, apple blossom, struck flint and fine lemon garlanding a firm, almost spicy mineral core. This is a true gem, both incredibly intense but also exceptionally well balanced. Stunning!	2014	35.00	175.00
06.	Bâtard-Montrachet Grand Cru, Louis Jadot, France The most full-bodied of the Grand Crus of Puligny and Chassagne. This wine is fermented and aged for an average of 18 months in oak barrels before bottling. The wine starts with intense aromas and flavours of almonds, apple, white flowers and spices. It has a sumptuous richness, great concentration, a stunning intensity and incredible length. (2011 Vintage: 95 points Wine Spectator).	2011	59.00	295.00

FINE WINE

RED WINE

		Vintage	125ml Glass	Bottle
07.	Corton-Pougets Grand Cru, Domaine des Héritiers Louis Jadot, France The Grand Cru vineyard of Les Pougets is made up of two parcels covering ten hectares on the upper and mid-slope next to the Le Charlemagne 'climat'. Jadot owns a superb, southerly-exposed parcel of about 1.5 hectares purchased in 1914. This exceptional site yields pure, mineral wines with red fruits and firm tannins. With age they become more expressive and more attractive, showing seductive layers of berry and oak. The 2006 started life beautifully balanced but slightly austere in comparison to the 2005. It has now developed into a wine with a combination of refinement and complexity. It shows a touch of spice and forest floor that merges into the intense and mineral-infused medium-bodied fruit flavours, culminating in an impressively long finish.	2006	24.00	122.00
08.	Hermitage, Monier de la Sizeranne, M. Chapoutier, France From the Rhône's smallest appellation, this wine is a blend of Syrah grapes hand-harvested from different vineyard sites, including Le Méal and Les Greffieux. Fermented in concrete tanks with one to two daily treadings to ensure a good extraction, it is then aged in oak casks for 12 to 14 months. The wine is a deep garnet-red, with purplish lights. It shows raspberry and blackcurrant aromas with a hint of liquorice and spicy, black pepper. Round and elegant in the mouth, the wine has concentrated dark and red fruits with gentle tannins followed by a lingering fresh finish.	2011/12	25.00	124.00
09.	Sassicaia Tenuta San Guido, Bolgheri DOC, Italy A landmark Italian wine created by the Marchese Mario Incisa della Rocchetta based on the finest wines of Bordeaux. 85% Cabernet Sauvignon and 15% Cabernet Franc, from vineyards on the Tuscan coast near Livorno. The wine is fermented in stainless steel before 24 months ageing in French oak barrique. It has ripe black cherry and blackberry flavours with accents of rosemary, mineral and spice. Concentrated and intense, it is fresh and focused, with blackcurrant and cedar notes on the finish. (Vintage 2011: 95 points Wine Spectator Insider).	2011	41.00	205.00

RED WINE

		Vintage	125ml Glass	Bottle
10.	Château Palmer 2001, Margaux, Bordeaux, France Chateau Palmer is a powerhouse of Bordeaux's Margaux appellation. Indeed, situated right next door to Chateau Margaux itself, some critics believe that Palmer is often capable of outperforming it's iconic neighbour. The 2001 exhibits the classically elegant Palmer nose; some richness, but always remaining pure and delicate. There's a Cabernet Sauvignon backbone (51%) yet more Merlot in the blend than usual (44%) and Petit Verdot (5%), perhaps one reason it's less powerful and more subtle and generous than other vintages. The 2001 offers scents of red fruit, blackberry, sandalwood, spice, and mocha and follows through in a similar fashion on the palate; poise, precision and finesse! The 2001 vintage is today a highly sought-after, scarce find on the Fine Wine Market and is quite simply described by the Chateau themselves as - 'Pure Palmer'.	2001	57.00	285.00
11.	Opus One 2007, Oakville, Napa, California, USA Opus One was founded by Baron Philippe de Rothschild and Robert Mondavi in the rolling hills of the Napa Valley in 1979. The wine is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon 79%, Merlot 8%, Cabernet Franc 6%, Petit Verdot 6% and Malbec 1%. Fermented in stainless steel and aged in new French oak for 19 months. The wine is deep red-ruby with perfumed aromas of ripe berries, roast coffee and flowers. Quite fresh and juicy in the mouth, but with a slightly exotic character to the dark berry, black cherry, smoky oak and bitter chocolate flavors. A sensational Opus One with sweet tannins and impressive precision and depth. (Vintage 2007: 95 points Robert Parker, Wine Advocate).	2007	80.00	400.00
12.	Château Mouton Rothschild 2004, Pauillac, Bordeaux France Château Mouton Rothschild is one of the five Classified First Growths of Bordeaux, a status it acquired, after years of lobbying, in 1973. The estate consistently produces wines of unquestionable quality and finesse. A blend of Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot, the wine exhibits beautiful aromas of crushed berries and chocolate, with hints of Indian spices. Full-bodied, with silky, velvety tannins and a long, caressing finish. This is a truly iconic wine and one we are extremely proud to be able to offer as part of our Coravin range. (Vintage 2004: 18 points Jancis Robinson). Note: The label shows a watercolour painted by HRH The Prince of Wales, inspired by a French landscape. The label marks the Centenary of the Entente Cordiale, concluded by Britain and France on 8 April 1904. The Prince of Wales has added in his own hand: "To celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the Entente Cordiale – Charles, 2004".	2004	100.00	475.00
