CHURCHILL'S FALL ENGLISH STYLE ALE

SESSION BITTER | 3.6% | PINT | £3.35
TRADITIONAL, CARAMEL, BITTER

How different the future of this country would have been if Sir Winston Churchill's fall in Bournemouth, 1892, had been fatal. Whilst out one night walking, he fell off a 29ft bridge rendering him bedridden for 3 months! Luckily though, he survived, and ended up doing some pretty great things! It's no secret that Churchill loved a beverage or two so what better way to show our respect than with a traditional English ale. Raise your glass of session bitter in his honour.

SUPERMAC | AMERICAN STYLE ALE AMBER ALE | 5.0% | PINT | £4.25

AMBER, CARAMEL, CITRUSY

Here's a record that's still to be broken. Picture this, it's 1971 and Bournemouth are playing Margate in the FA Cup. Ted McDougall, a Bournemouth footballer, is set for one of the best games of his life. In this one game, he scored 9 goals - the most goals ever scored in an FA Cup! This incredible achievement dubbed him 'Supermac'. As Supermac now lives in the USA, coaching the Atlanta Silverbacks, we've honoured him with this American Amber Ale!

SAVIOUR ED | AMERICAN STYLE ALE BLONDE ALE | 4.0% | PINT | £4.00

SIMPLE, BALANCED, REFRESHING

After suffering a catalogue of injuries and under threat of never returning to football, Bournemouth FC veteran Eddie Howe was loaned from Portsmouth back to his adopted home club, where supporters took matters into their own hands when the club's financial problems rendered his future uncertain, raising the sum for his official transfer. Fast track 3 seasons and 270 appearances later after his instrumental role in saving the club, Eddie moves from player to management and embarks on an amazing road to success culminating in Bournemouth FC joining the world-class Premier League in 2015!

LIGHTNING BOLT | IPA TRADITIONAL IPA | 5.5% | PINT | £4.55

BITTER, STRONG, HOPPY

It's hard to imagine what kind of brain is required to make up stories such as the unorthodox, horror story of 'The Modern Prometheus' (Frankenstein) (1818), and it would surprise you to know that it was in fact an 18-year-old Mary Shelley whose dream inspired the legend! We reckon you have to have quite a spicy personality to come up with a novel like so we've brewed a spicy Traditional IPA in her honour.

OUR KEG BEERS

YANKEE HACK ^{Ve} AMERICAN STYLE ALE AMERICAN PALE | 4.8% | PINT | £4.90

MALTY, AROMATIC, HOPPY

Who better to name our American Pale Ale after than our adopted national treasure, Bill Bryson. Whilst working for the Bournemouth Echo during the 1970s, he wrote his beloved book Notes from a Small Island. The book is inspired by his 'Grand Tour' of Blighty from an American perspective - filled with jokes and interesting facts about Britain - it's well worth a read. We're sure a man of this acumen couldn't resist a pint of Yankee Hack!

LEGEND LAGER ^{Ve} | LAGER CRAFT LAGER | 5.0% | PINT | £4.60

AROMATIC, DRY, REFRESHING

Brewed with Strisselspalt hops for their legendary aromatic properties, our premium craft lager is both satisfying and refreshing

TRILOGY ^{Ve} | STOUT & PORTER OATMEAL STOUT | 5.4% | PINT | £4.50

BLACK, SMOOTH, CHOCOLATE

Famous author and Bournemouth resident JRR Tolkien, responsible for the classic trilogy Silmarillion, The Hobbit and Lord of the Rings, loved beer and talking into the early hours - something most of us like to do after a few pints! Grab a glass of this fantastic Stout and cheers to Middle Earth. Originally written as one book, lack of available paper meant it had to be published in 3 separate parts - probably the best commercial literary decision ever.
