OUR CASK BEERS

STEVEDORE | ENGLISH STYLE ALE
SESSION BITTER | 3.6% | PINT | £3.35
TRADITIONAL, CARAMEL, BITTER

As a tribute to all the hard working men and women who have been at the beating heart of Gloucester Docks, whose cargo was transferred direct to narrow boats carrying the goods up river and through the inland canals to the Midlands. Importing goods from Ireland, North America, Portugal and France, and for returning ships, their holds were full of SALT, Worcestershire's most famous export! Raise a glass and toast the stevedores (A.K.A. the dock workers) throughout the centuries.

SHED HEAD | IPA
SESSION IPA | 4.0% | PINT | £3.75
LIGHT, HOPPY, BITTER

Our Head Brewer is as passionate about brewing a great IPA as Gloucester is about its rich rugby heritage and the rugby greats the club has spawned such as Phil Vickery, John Gordon A'Bear, and Mike Tindell, to name but a few. Skill, talent and dedication are all qualities that make a great team but the fans with their loyalty and unswerving support provide the magic, which makes for a fantastic, successful club, much like our session IPA. Although we use the finest American hops the real magic happens when it is brewed in small batches, right here by our Head Brewer.

SSB | AMERICAN STYLE ALE
AMERICAN PALE ALE | 4.5% | PINT | £3.85
LIGHT, REFRESHING, HOPPY

Gloucester born John Stafford-Smith 1750 – 1836 certainly left his mark on American culture – he wrote the music to the national anthem of the USA! Smith's patriotic melody was picked up by Francis Scott Key, an eminent American lawyer and author, to accompany his 1805 poem 'When the Warrior Returns from the Battle Afar'. This was adopted by the U.S. Army and Navy after the attack of Fort McHenry, by (ironically) the British fleet in 1814. Congress didn't make the now entitled "Star Spangled Banner" the country's national anthem until 1931.

(DOWN) A PEGG
AMERICAN STYLE ALE
AMBER ALE | 4.5% | PINT | £3.85
RUBY, MALTY, CARAMEL

It is only fitting that we name at least one of our beers in tribute to Gloucester's most famous acting son and Hollywood Superstar 'Simon Pegg'. Down a glass of our malty, caramel Amber ale and toast his 'almost too many to mention' comic and acting achievements but most notably zom rom com Shaun of The Dead, comic satire Hot Fuzz, an iconic role as 'Scotty' in the 2009 remake of Star Trek, and Mr Cruise's co-star in Mission Impossible.

The similarities between the Gloucester twinned Parish of St Ann's Bay, in Jamaica on the north coast of the jewel of the Caribbean, with its swaying palm trees, tropical heat, turquoise waters and white sandy beaches, may be hard to fathom during the ubiquitous cold, wet and dreary typical climate of Blyth, so we have made this delicious Stout to take you on your very own Caribbean adventure.
