An elegant white with delicate stone and orchard fruit and some minerality. (Bio, Vg)
Sauvignon Blanc, Circumstance, South Africa 2018	6	8	11	32
Rich and minerally, this wine has a big and textured palate with stone fruit and fennel hints.
Chablis, Domaine Fournillon, France 2016	6	8	11	32
Green apples and hints of pear give a long finish and a zippy tang.
Semillon Viognier, Alpha Box & Dice, Australia 2015				35
Capsicum, guava and butterscotch on the nose with waxy, textured, almond, spicy and rich flavours. (Vg)

Whisky

Our selection is wide and diverse, and below is a tally of what we are mostly drinking this month

Lagavulin 16 5.50
In our view, this is one of the best whiskies in the world and, pound for pound, the best value. From Islay, it epitomises the peat and smoke characteristics you would expect, delivered to you in a soft and sweet bubble. A tremendous expression of single malt scotch.

Tamnavulin Double Cask 5.50
We recently discovered this little gem, and were delighted that we did. A very rich malt full of character. This matches well with pastry desserts, as well as with coffee and chocolate.

Glenfiddich 12 4.50
So often over-looked due to its world domination in the malt category. We felt it needed some recognition for the liquid. Brian Kinsman is no fool and knows his juice. Year after year, keeps on walking...

Gin

Our pick of the best, from the old and the new, some are borrowed but none are blue (yet!)

Lind & Lime 3.50
The first tippie to come from Edinburgh's Port of Leith Distillery, Lind & Lime pays homage to Dr. J Lind, who discovered the effect of citrus fruits on those suffering from scurvy. Lind & Lime gin uses lime as its base flavour, balanced with pink peppercorns and juniper for a fresh, strong flavour.

Hendrick's 3.75
It's the oldest we have at the moment, which says a lot about the gin craze this time around. 20 years of the the trend setting gin and it's still holding its own against all the new rivals.

Biggar 3.75
Produced in small batches, we are still working out where. Quite a classic style but packs a real punch at 50%, try it in a dirty martini, or long in a G&T.

Our Drinking Habits

Our spirit range is ever changing. We have our favourites and we love to try new things. Whether you're into Tequila or Mezcal, you like your rye in a Vodka or from France in a Manhattan, your Gin the old fashioned way, or you want to try a Scotch like never before.

Ask us for a suggestion and we will find you something special.

Rosé

	125	175	250	BTL
Lopez de Haro Rosado, Bodega Class. Hacienda, Spain 2017	4	5.5	7	21
Floral notes accompanied by fresh fruits and an orange peel background. About as pink as a pale apple blossom.
Lapostolle le Rosé, Chile 2018	4.5	6	8.5	25
Rounded with fresh fruit and flowers and a velvety texture. A pale pink hue reminiscent of meadowsweet.
Pineau d'aunis, Carillon de Vendome 2016				30
A great presence of aromas of citrus and raspberry with hints of cardamom and peppery zest, with fine crisp lemons. The barely there pink of a York and Lancaster old rose.

Fizz

	125		BTL
Durello, Palazzi, Adria Vini, Italy NV	5		25
Very fresh and zippy palate with crisp green apple and lightly honeyed characters. (Vg)
Sangria Rosalea, La Mundial, Spain NV	6		30
Glowing colour of bright deep pink a lively, intense bouquet of orange and grapefruit. (org, Vg)
Arte Traditional Brut, Casa Valduga, Brazil NV	7		35
Light and subtle with notes of apples and citrus. Refreshing and well-balanced.
Champagne Henri Giraud Espirit Nature (Natural), France NV			55
Champagne Henri Giraud is the oldest Champagne house still owned by its founding family. Suffused with a superb mineral bitterness, it marks its arrival amongst the great wines of Champagne, with its incomparable fruit offering an invitation to shared pleasure.
