

WADADLI KITCHEN

The Arawak are the old time islanders who named Antigua 'Wadadli'. It means 'our own'. They were a trusting people who lived in harmony with nature and gifted the barbecue to the world. This winter we're bringing the joy of barbecuing the old style way to Hackney Wick in celebration of the achievements of the Arawak whose innovations and ideas continue to make life better today.

Wadadli Winter Barbeque - Set Menu

meat/fish £45pp - vegan £35pp

Spiced pumpkin fritters (vg)
Smoked cheddar & jalapeno fritters

-

Main courses are sharing dishes for minimum 2 people

Spit roast whole chicken, coconut tea

or

Barbecued whole fish (today's pick from the market) in banana leaf

or

Barbecued tomahawk steak, Arawak chimichurri (£10 supplement per person)

or

Wild mushroom & chestnut stuffed pumpkin, baked in the embers (vg)

served with

Barbecued carrots, pumpkin seed dukkah
Charred sweetheart cabbage, green chilli butter
Fried plantain
Scotch bonnet fries

-

Pineapple upside down cake, rum syrup, cardamom & lime custard (vg option)

or

Chocolate and Salted Caramel shots

Our fearless flavours fuse the magic of the Caribbean with the future of multicultural Britain, join us!

