

The image features three darts with black barrels and red flights, resting on a wooden surface. The scene is bathed in a strong red light, creating a dramatic, low-key atmosphere. The wood grain is clearly visible, and the darts are arranged in a loose cluster. A white logo is superimposed over the center of the image, consisting of the number '180' in a large font, a circular icon containing a dart, and the words 'CLUB' and 'CAMDEN' stacked below it.
