THE WOLFPACK TEAM

CELEBRATE THE FESTIVE SEASON
WITH THE PACK

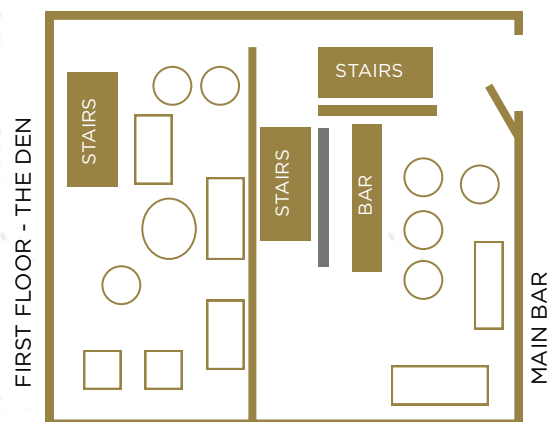

When we first set our eyes on an ageing garage in Queen's Park, we knew we had found a place to call home. Rough, raw and brimming with potential, we believed a place with this much character could become something truly special. With equal measures of blood, sweat and beers we gave it a soul, and are now proud to call it the beating heart of the Wolfpack.

At Wolfpack Queen's Park, the festive season transforms our rugged space into the perfect setting for Christmas parties.

While we don't have a kitchen on site, you're always welcome to bring in catering or order festive feasts straight to the venue to suit your celebrations.

Our epic Den can host private Christmas parties of up to 100 guests.
