

WELCOME

TO HOCKLEY SOCIAL CLUB.

Hockley Social Club is a former printing factory, transformed into an all-day, all-night hangout space where food, music and culture collide.

Curated and operated by Digbeth Dining Club, Hockley Social Club brings together the best of Birmingham's street food with a rotating lineup of talented traders.

More than just a place to eat, our warehouse is a love letter to the vibrant cultural and music scene within Birmingham. We offer a diverse calendar of incredible events, from grassroots live music and lifestyle markets, to comedy nights and classical performances from the CBSO.

Looking for a late night Saturday vibe? Or maybe a bottomless brunch? We've got those on lock too. Plus, a selection of event spaces to hire for birthdays, parties, corporates and more.

We guess you could say it's the best social club you've ever been to (and then some).
