

AUDREY I GREEN

AFTERNOON TEA

Indulge in a timeless experience with Breakfast at Audrey's Afternoon Tea, a tribute to the enchanting elegance of Audrey Hepburn and her starring role in 'Breakfast at Tiffany's'.

Relax in a setting that echoes the sophistication and charm of the iconic film while savouring a delightful array of delicacies that embody Audrey's classic style.

Exquisite patisserie hand crafted in house every day alongside dainty finger sandwiches, freshly baked scones and fine rare teas, all served with a touch of iconic-blue glamour.

Relive the grace and allure of Holly Golightly in an afternoon of indulgence and nostalgia.

Audrey Hepburn began her cabaret dancing career at Circo's nightclub on Orange Street, just steps away from what is now the headquarters of the National Portrait Gallery. Her lasting impact through film, fashion, and philanthropy has inspired our Afternoon Tea, 'Breakfast at Audrey's'.

Drawing inspiration from one of Audrey's most iconic films, "Breakfast at Tiffany's," we have crafted a bespoke selection of patisseries to honour the film star and the film's unforgettable opening sequence.

Black

Brockley Breakfast Tea

Our award-winning Brockley Breakfast tea is a delightful twist on the classic English Breakfast blend. This whole leaf black tea offers a wonderfully balanced and versatile brew, perfect for breakfast. Enjoy it best with a dash of milk.

Earl Grey

Our Earl Grey features a single-origin Ceylon black tea from the remote Uva region of Sri Lanka, combined with natural Italian bergamot oil. The blend's natural citrus and pine notes harmonize with the bergamot, creating a delicately fragrant tea with a distinctive spicy hit, making it a quintessential Earl Grey.

Darjeeling 2nd Flush

Our Darjeeling 2nd Flush loose leaf black tea boasts silvery tips and a medium body, with a floral aroma and muscatel flavour. Delightfully fragrant, this tea is perfect for an afternoon cup and is best enjoyed without milk.

Oolong

Iron Buddha (Oolong Tea)

Our Iron Buddha, also known as Tie Guan Yin, is a traditional loose leaf oolong tea. It undergoes medium fermentation and careful baking over bamboo, resulting in a rich and smooth infusion with notes of roasted chestnuts and dried fruit.

White

White Peony

The unopened silver buds and emerald green leaves of our White Peony loose leaf white tea produce a delicate, pale gold infusion with notes of honey and melon. Light yet well-rounded and distinctly sweet, this tea serves as a perfect introduction to white tea.

Green

Jade Tips (Mao Jian)

Our award-winning Jade Tips, or Mao Jian, loose leaf green tea has a clean vegetal flavour and lingering almond sweetness. Grown in the Bai Yun or 'White Cloud' mountains, these dark, wiry leaves produce a bright, pale green liquor - a deliciously refreshing, everyday green tea.

Herbal Infusions

Lemon Verbena

Our loose leaf Lemon Verbena tea offers a bright yellow cup with a smooth, creamy, and refreshing flavour. This caffeine-free herbal tea, known for its digestive and muscle-relaxing qualities, is perfect after an evening meal. The dusty green whole leaves are grown in Portugal's Alentejo region and kept whole for optimal flavour.

Rooibos

Grown exclusively in South Africa's Cederberg mountains, our loose leaf Rooibos herbal tea derives its name from the deep red colour of the oxidized leaves. This tea delivers a full-bodied, honey-sweet flavour with hints of dried cherries and vanilla. It's a robust, caffeine-free alternative to breakfast tea and can be enjoyed with a dash of milk if desired.

Lemongrass

Our loose leaf Lemongrass tea zings with a sweet, lemony freshness that lingers long after drinking. This herbal tea brews a bright yellow, lemony cup - perfect as a refreshing afternoon pick-me-up.
