WHITE WINE

Bottle

2023 Chardonnay, Moss Wood, Margaret River, Australia

£68

While Burgundy may lead the way, Margaret River is quickly earning a spot among the top Chardonnay regions—and this wine shows exactly why. From one of the regions first wineries, Moss Wood's 2023 Chardonnay is full of flavour and personality. Think juicy white peach, zingy lemon curd, and a whisper of toasted cashew, all wrapped in creamy, smooth oak

2024 The FMC Chenin Blanc, Ken Forrester Wines, Stellenbosch, South Africa

£70

Ken Forrester, often called the “Master of Chenin”, named this flagship wine The FMC—short for “F*ing Marvelous Chenin”—and it lives up to its name. The grapes are hand-picked in up to ten passes through the vineyard to capture different stages of ripeness, adding layers of flavour and texture. Fermented and matured in oak, it is rich and complex, with notes of ripe apricot, honey, vanilla, and gentle spice, all balanced by bright acidity.

2023 Bourgogne Blanc La Tufera, Domaine Etienne Sauzet, Burgundy, France

£78

Etienne Sauzet's 'La Tufera' is one of the best kept secrets of white Burgundy. A pure expression of Chardonnay that punches well above its appellation status, the grapes are sourced from three old vine parcel blocks located just below the Puligny-Montrachet vineyard. Vinified in 4 year old barrels and large foudres, giving ripe pear and citrus fruit, juicy acidity and a creamy texture. This vintage is a wonderful rendition of this 'Petit Puligny'.

RED WINE

2018 Beaune 1er Cru Teurons, Domaine de Bellene, Burgundy, France

£80

Domaine de Bellene is the personal project of Nicolas Potel, one of Burgundy's most dynamic and respected winemakers. Known for his deep knowledge of the Côte d'Or and his commitment to sustainable, old-vine vineyards. This wine shows ripe red cherry and wild strawberry fruit, subtle spice, and silky tannins—an elegant, authentic expression of Beaune's charm and Nicolas Potel's thoughtful, terroir-driven style. Sadly, earlier this year Nicolas passed away in a tragic accident, leaving behind a remarkable legacy.

2021 Amarone Valpantena, Bertani, Veneto, Italy

£68

Bertani is one of the most trusted names in Valpolicella, known for making classic Amarone with care and consistency. Founded in the 1800s, the winery helped put Amarone on the map and still focuses on traditional methods with a modern touch. In the Valpantena valley, Bertani produces wines that are rich but balanced, full of ripe fruit and smooth texture.

2020 Barolo Via Nuova, E. Pira, Piedmont, Italy

£90

Chiara Boschis is a true trailblazer—one of the original Barolo Boys who helped usher this historic region into a new era. At her tiny E. Pira estate in the heart of Barolo, she brings both passion and precision to every vintage. Farming organically and working almost entirely by hand, The 2020 Barolo Via Nuova is beautifully expressive, with lifted floral notes, fine tannins, and a graceful power.
