

The background is a vertical rectangular panel with a marbled pattern. The primary colors are various shades of teal and blue, ranging from deep navy to bright turquoise. Interspersed throughout are veins and patches of a metallic gold or bronze color. The pattern is organic and fluid, resembling natural stone or liquid marbling. Four registration marks, each consisting of a small circle with a crosshair, are positioned at the corners of the panel: top-center, bottom-center, left-center, and right-center.
