THE SAVOY X ECOSPIRITS

Our team works in partnership with ecoSPIRITS to reduce the carbon footprint that is associated with the cocktails we create.

ecoSPIRITS is a circular economy technology company that has developed the world's first low carbon, low waste distribution technology for premium spirits and wine.

Each year, ecoSPIRITS works with venues like us and are eliminating hundreds of tons of single use glass waste, planting tens of thousands of trees, and inspiring others to change.

Liquid Moments

BY THE
AMERICAN BAR
BARTENDER

FOR OVER 136 YEARS, THE SAVOY HAS BEEN A LANDMARK FOR PEOPLE FROM ALL AROUND THE WORLD – A PLACE THAT SPARKS UNFORGETTABLE MOMENTS THAT BECOME CHERISHED MEMORIES TO LAST A LIFETIME.

From grand celebrations like anniversaries, birthdays, graduations and weddings, to more intimate occasions – a quiet conversation, after-work drinks, or time shared with loved ones – each of these have been marked with a drink at the American Bar. Over the years, countless stories have unfolded here, many of which are captured within this menu, transformed into liquid form.

Each drink crafted by our bartenders carries its own history – a story, a memory, a moment. As you explore this menu, we invite you to create your own unforgettable liquid moment in the American Bar.

TEA O'CLOCK

SILKY - FRUITY - LIGHT

Guests have been visiting The Savoy to indulge in its iconic Afternoon Tea for more than a century. A cherished tradition since the hotel first opened its doors in 1889, The Savoy continues to honour the classic service style of Afternoon Tea, a ritual that originated in 1840. Each year, the hotel serves over 400,000 scones, accompanied by jam, clotted cream, perfectly brewed tea – and often, a glass of champagne.

THE PLAYER

HERBACEOUS - LIVELY - BUBBLY

The Savoy Theatre opened its doors on October 10th 1881, with the intended purpose of showcasing the light operas of Gilbert and Sullivan. The popularity of these shows shortly ensured that they became known as The Savoy Operas.

The most successful of these performances was The Mikado (1885), from which this cocktail draws inspiration, blending the quintessentially British product of Gin, with Japanese flavors.

The Savoy is one of London's many iconic buildings and lying just to the east is another historically significant landmark - the Tower of London. Home to the Beefeaters, also known as Yeoman Warders, their job is to protect the building, guide and interact with visitors, and preserve the history and heritage of the Tower. This is our tribute to them.

The hotel's 'Ascending Room,' was the first electric lift in London. Before its introduction, the best rooms in the hotel were deemed to be the ground floor to avoid guests walking up flights of stairs. It quickly made the higher floors with better views more desirable and came with a seat and smelling salts as many guests would faint from the unfamiliarity of moving. Our nod to this is the salt we use to ferment the blackberries.

One of the greatest exports of America is one of the most well known head bartenders of the American Bar, Harry Craddock. Harry, who despite being an Englishman, moved to NYC to work only to return post prohibition to the American Bar with an array of ideas and new knowledge. This is our toast to Harry for bringing his creative mind to the American Bar.

Wings, the British-American rock band have long been admired by many as pioneers in the British music scene. On one infamous recording session, they turned a boat in the Virgin Islands into a recording studio, and spent a debaucherous time making music around Watermelon Bay, which has inspired our take on the fresh and fruity margarita.

Artist Claude Monet produced some of his most famous paintings while staying in London at The Savoy. Spectacular views over the River Thames and iconic London landmarks, such as the Houses of Parliament, inspired him to paint his famous series of London bridges as he resided in his suite for the first of three lengthy stays at The Savoy between 1899 and 1901.

Experience a cocktail that has travelled the globe before it was bottled. The Age of Discovery began in an oak barrel, filled with our cocktail and loaded onto the Queen Mary II for a journey around the world. Following the great maritime routes that once connected ingredients, cultures and ideas, the cocktail matured throughout its voyage before returning home to be bottled and shared.

A full sized bottle of this rare and evocative cocktail can also be purchased to enjoy at home.

VINTAGE
COCKTAILS

The American Bar is the longest surviving cocktail bar in Britain. It opened in 1893 in the original riverside part of the hotel, and moved to this spot in 1904. Such a wealth of cocktail history has inspired our specialisation in vintage, fine and rare spirits. The bar has additional vintage spirits available, please ask your server for other cocktail suggestions.
