The Hot

Box

The Hot box x The Vic

The Hotbox refers only to the trailer — not the cuisine. It gives us the freedom to change menus, launch new drops, and keep things fresh without ever weakening the brand.”

The Hotbox — a tongue-in-cheek, instantly memorable name that’s fun, slightly cheeky, and full of personality. For some, it simply suggests heat, smoke, and great food; for others, it carries a playful edge. Either way, it’s distinctive, conversation-starting, and easy to remember.

The menu drops are designed to be Deliveroo-friendly — built around sharing platters and meals for two. It targets local households who want quality, hassle-free alternative to cooking at home.

Our focus on sharing plates and platters encourages groups and families to come together, order more, and stay longer. It creates a buzzing, social atmosphere that drives footfall before, during, and after the matches on Game day.

We will even cater to the single one with a meal deal box and drink
